Free trial offer for telephonic On Demand Spanish language solutions

Common Ground International offers businesses a fast and easy solution to Spanish language barriers in the workplace

(LAFAYETTE, CO) – Common Ground International, LLC is offering a free subscription for its telephonic On Demand Spanish Support service. The service provides a quick and easy way for businesses to get the Spanish and English language help they need whenever and wherever they encounter communication issues as a result of a language barrier.

“We are really trying to bring an instantaneous solution to language barriers and communication misunderstandings in the workplace,” said Rory Foster. “The answer to a person’s language question can be resolved with one quick and easy phone call placed to our On Demand Spanish hotline where the caller will be transferred directly to one of our specialized interpreters.”

The free subscription for the telephonic On Demand Spanish language interpretation service includes:

- Live call-in translation service available from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Friday.
- No strings attached.
- No automatic conversion to paid subscriptions.
- Test the service for FREE and receive a phone call at the end of one month to see how you liked the service.
